

Lupe Salmeron

Head of Finance

Bio

Lupe is a brilliant CPA who specializes in helping companies thrive by keeping their finances on track and their money growing. She has been in the field for over 15 years working with a large variety of clients and industries, ranging from small sole proprietors to medium and large corporations. Having worked accounting in public, private and non-profit sectors, she has obtained valuable experience and training that has allowed her to provide her teams with the critical insight necessary to ensure outstanding outcomes.